Let's Start!

Sally needs directions in Paris!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and give directions.
- I can tell someone where something is located.
- I can talk about places in a city.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite place in your city or town?
- How far from your house is this place?

Let's Explore!

Sally is at the Louvre Museum. She wants to go to the Arc De Triomphe*. Where does she go?

* The "Louvre" is one of the largest museums in the world.

 The "Arc De Triomphe" is a famous monument in Paris.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Stranger: Do you need some help, Miss?

Sally: Yes, please! How do I get to the Arc de Triomphe?

Stranger: Hmm ... are you taking the Metro or walking?

Sally: I'm walking.

Stranger: Head north on Rue de Rivoli toward the Passage Richelieu entrance.

Sally: Sounds complicated!

Stranger: Take the yellow line.

Sally: Where is the nearest station?

Stranger: Walk straight ahead to the gallery. The station is opposite it. Go down the stairs. The underground path takes you straight to line 1.

Sally: Which direction?

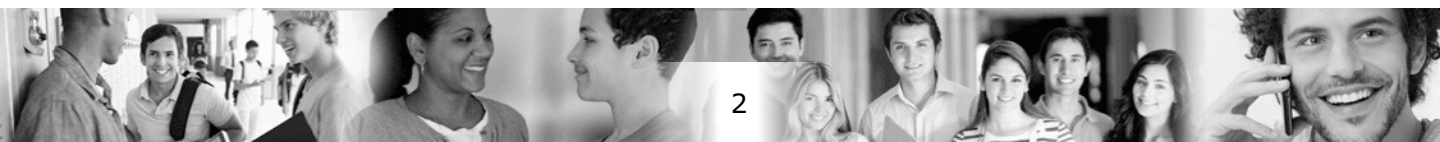

Stranger: Take the westbound train. The platform is in front of the ticket booth. Get off at Charles de Gaulle - Étoile station.

Sally: Where do I go from there?

Stranger: Turn right when you get off. Walk to the end of the pathway and follow the signs.

Sally: Thanks!

Stranger: Not a problem! Enjoy the city lights!

Let's Practice!
