Let's Start!

Where's the cafe? How about the park?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite spot in your city or town?
- Where is it located?

Can Do Statements

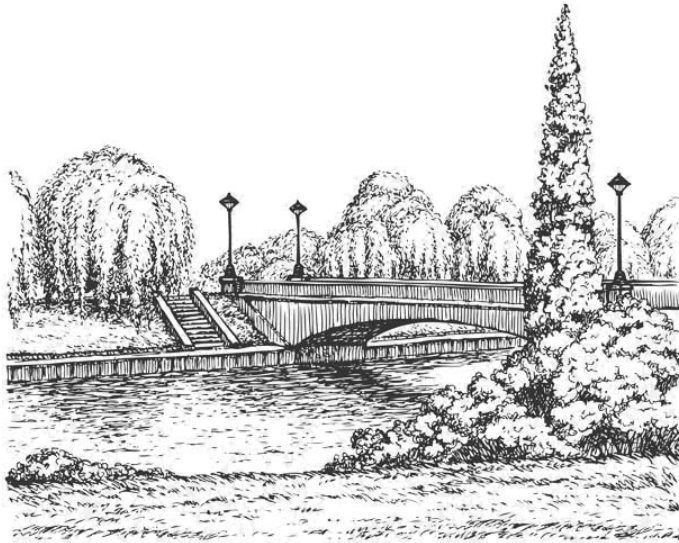

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can ask and say where places are.
- I can tell someone where something is located.

Let's Explore!

Sally wants to get to the cafe. How does she get there?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hmm ... where can I get coffee?

Stranger: You can get coffee and crepes at the cafe across from the Arc. It's my favorite spot!

Sally: Can you tell me how to get there? How far is it?

Stranger: Sure. It's not very far from here. Walk straight ahead until you get to Rue de Tilsitt. Then, walk across the bridge. The cafe is opposite the park, between the bar and the clothing boutique.

Sally: The cafe in front of the park?

Stranger: No, it's across from the park. There is a little ice cream stand in front of the cafe.

Sally: Mmm ice cream.

Stranger: There's an ice cream parlor next to the Metro station, by the corner shop. You should go there too.

Sally: I intend to!

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about the places in Paris. Where are they?

Instructions: Read the text. Circle all the locations.

- 1) Walk straight ahead until you get to Rue de Tilsitt. Then, walk across the bridge. The cafe is opposite the park between the bar and a clothing boutique.
- 2) There's an ice cream parlor next to the Metro station, by the corner shop.

Let's Practice!

Where are the places located?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Read each clue. Check off the correct square.

1. The cafe is _____ the park.
2. The cafe is _____ the bar and a clothing boutique.
3. Is the cafe _____ the park?
4. There's an ice cream parlor _____ the Metro station.
