

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Bonjour! Welcome to the city of Paris!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What are the three words you would use to describe your city?
- What are three words you would use to describe your neighborhood?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe a city and places in it.
- I can write a short city guide.
- I can write about where something is located.

Let's Explore!

Some call it, "The City of Love". Others call it, "The City of Lights*". Welcome to the incredible city of Paris.

* A nickname - popular for tourists after they get married.

 A nickname - one of the first cities to have lights in the streets.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Want delicious food, amazing attractions and fantastic shopping? Paris is one of the most fascinating and beautiful cities in Europe. This famous city is popular for its cafes, designer boutiques, museums and historical buildings.

Attractions

In the city centre, there are landmarks and monuments like the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre and the Notre Dame cathedral. Paris is also famous for its fashion and designer boutiques. Browse the shops on your way down the Champs-Élysées. Spend one day strolling off the beaten path and see how Parisians live. Cross the bridge over the Seine River that runs through the city. Visit the local markets near the Panthéon.

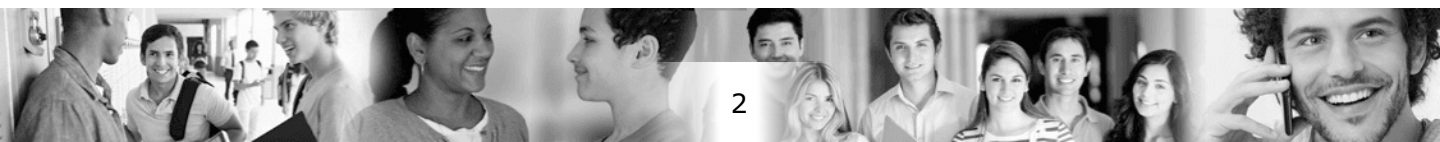

Food

French cuisine is world-class. Enjoy the great food and lively atmosphere in a French cafe on a side street or book a table for dinner at a romantic restaurant.

Accommodation and Transportation

There are hundreds of hotels to choose from. Many are close to the attractions. Paris has great public transport. The cost for a daily train pass is not expensive.

Don't you want to visit?

Let's Practice!

What should you include in a city guide? Let's find out!

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

1. Things to include in a city guide:
 - a. Names of attractions
 - b. Attractions not to visit
 - c. Transportation
 - d. Accommodation
 - e. Food

Let's Practice!

Do you remember the places and attractions in Paris?

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word bank

near / monuments / lively boutiques / down / through

1. Famous landmarks and _____ like the Eiffel Tower, the Louvre and the Notre Dame Cathedral are popular tourist attractions.
2. Cross the bridge over the Seine river that runs _____ the city.
3. This famous city is popular for its cafes, designer _____, museums and historical buildings.
4. Visit the local markets _____ the Pantheon.
5. Browse the shops on your way _____ the Champs-Élysées.
6. Enjoy the great food and _____ atmosphere in a French cafe on a side street or book a table for dinner at a romantic restaurant.

Extension Activity

Imagine you work for a magazine. You have to write a city guide for your city or town.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- Write a short city guide.
- Include the headings: Introduction, Attractions, Food, Accommodation and Transport.
- Use adjectives to describe your city.
- Write in sentences and use capital letters and periods.
- Read your guide aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I include headings in my city guide.

☐ ☐

I use adjectives to describe my city.

☐ ☐

I use correct punctuation.

☐ ☐

I read my guide aloud.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- lively (adjective): full of energy, excitement, or feeling
e.g. I enjoyed the lively atmosphere in the restaurant.
- fascinating (adjective): very interesting or appealing e.g. Paris is a fascinating city.
- off the beaten path (expression): not known or popular with many people e.g. Take a walk off the beaten path.
- attraction (noun): a well-known place in a city
e.g. We saw a lot of attractions in the city.
- monument (noun): a building, statue, etc., that honors a person or event
e.g. There are many famous monuments in Paris.
- public transport (noun): trains and buses in a city
e.g. Paris has great public transport.
- world-class (adjective): of very high quality
Paris has a world-class transportation system.

Learning Points

Describing Cities

There are many ways to describe a city. You can also use nouns to talk about a city.

1. You can talk about the quality of life.

Example:
The cost of living	How much do things cost? Is it an expensive city to live in?
The pace of life	Is life slow or very busy?
Pollution	Is the air clean? Is there a lot of garbage?

2. You can talk about areas in a city.

Example:
Suburbs	The area where people live in houses near a larger city
City Center	The main or central part of a city
Outskirts	The parts of a city or town that are far from the center
Inner City	The central section of a large city where mostly poor people live

3. You can use adjectives to describe a city.

crowded	expensive	polluted	busy	lively
modern	beautiful	noisy	pleasant	historic
ancient	exciting	large	small	relaxed

Examples:

- Paris is a beautiful and historic city.
- There are many designer boutiques with expensive clothes.
- The attractions are very crowded in the summer.

