

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Shopping? Dining? What's there to do in Paris?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What city do you want to visit? Why?
- What places do you want to go to in this city?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about my plans and intentions.
- I can talk about travel.
- I can talk about what people are doing.

Let's Explore!

Sally writes a blog entry. What is it about?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Paris is a very old but also very modern city, with something for everyone. There's so much to do! I'm strolling through the neighborhoods this afternoon with a guide. We're seeing some of the art at the museums.

Later, I'm going to go window-shopping for designer clothing. Some famous designers work in Paris. I intend to visit these shops.

There are excellent restaurants in Paris. French cooking is famous. I'm checking out a restaurant and a wine bar with the guide tomorrow. Paris is any sweet tooth's dream! I'm drooling just sitting here thinking about the macaroons. You can bet I intend to eat a lot of those. I'm going to post an entry about them later.

Let's Practice!

What's Sally going to do in the city?

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Read the clues on the left. Check off the correct box in the table.

	Intend	Be going to
Visit shops
Eat a lot of macaroons
Window-shop for designer clothes
Write a blog entry about macaroons

Let's Practice!

What's Sally up to in Paris?

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in parentheses.

I'm _____ (strolling, going to, walking to) through the neighborhoods this afternoon with a guide. I'm _____ (checking out, visiting in, seeing the) a restaurant and a wine bar with the guide tomorrow.

We're _____ (seeing, visiting, going to) some art at the museums next week.

I'm _____ (thinking, drooling, sitting) just _____ (thinking, drooling, sitting) here _____ (thinking, drooling, sitting) about the macaroons.

Extension Activity

Select a city you plan to go to.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- Choose a city.
- Go on the Internet. Find places and things to do in this city.
- Write 3 sentences about where you intend to go.
- Write 3 sentences about what you plan to do.
- Write 3 sentences starting with I'm going to ...
- Read your sentences aloud to your class.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about my plans and intentions.

☐ ☐

I use the Present Continuous tense.

☐ ☐

I use Going to.

☐ ☐

I read my sentences aloud.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- old (adjective): something that exists for a long time
e.g. Paris is an old city.
- art (noun): paintings, drawings
e.g. There's great art in the museums.
- window-shopping (noun): the activity of looking at goods in shop windows without intending to buy them e.g. I'm going to go window-shopping for clothing.
- designer (noun): a person who makes plans or patterns for clothes
e.g. Many designers work in Paris.
- to intend (verb): to have something in your mind; have an objective
e.g. I intend on visiting these shops.
- wine bar (noun): a small restaurant where wine is the main drink available e.g. I'm going to check out a wine bar in Paris.
- sweet tooth (noun): a strong liking for sweet food
e.g. Paris is any sweet tooth's dream!
- to drool (verb): to let saliva come out of your mouth
e.g. I'm drooling just thinking about all these desserts!
- macaroon (noun): a small round cake
e.g. Paris is famous for its macaroons.

Learning Points

Present Continuous vs. Be Going To

You use the Present Continuous and be going to to talk about future actions and events.

You use the Present Continuous to talk about arrangements and plans. Be going to puts an emphasis on the idea of intention (you decide to do something).

Example: I'm meeting with the tour group this afternoon. vs. I'm going to meet the guide this week.

You can use intend to in place of be going to.

Examples:

- I'm visiting a restaurant.
- I'm checking out the wine bar.
- I'm going to go to the museum today.
- Are you going sightseeing today?
- I intend to go on a walk.

