Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you want to visit Paris? Why or why not?
- Would you like to take a tour of Paris? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can start a conversation with a stranger.
- I can describe places in a city.
- I can ask who, what, when, where questions.

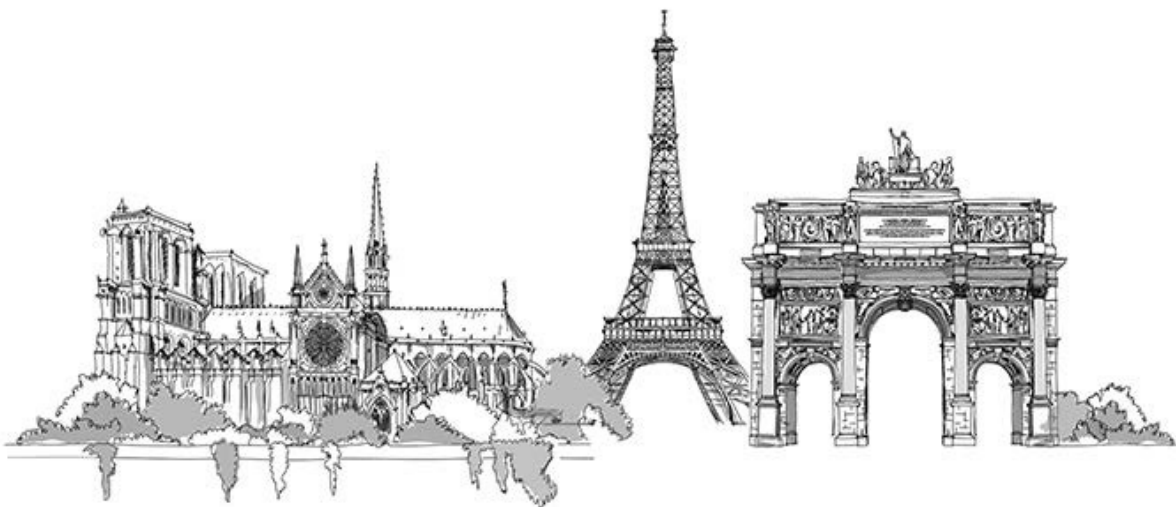

Let's Explore!

Sally is taking a tour of Paris ... on a boat! What are they going to see?

* Use "going to" to put an emphasis on the idea of intention (you decide to do something).

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Excuse me, is this seat free?

Stranger: Yes.

Sally: Thanks.

Stranger: I'm Marie. Nice to meet you.

Sally: Hi Marie. I'm Sally. Nice to meet you too.

Stranger: Where are you from?

Sally: I'm from America. How about you?

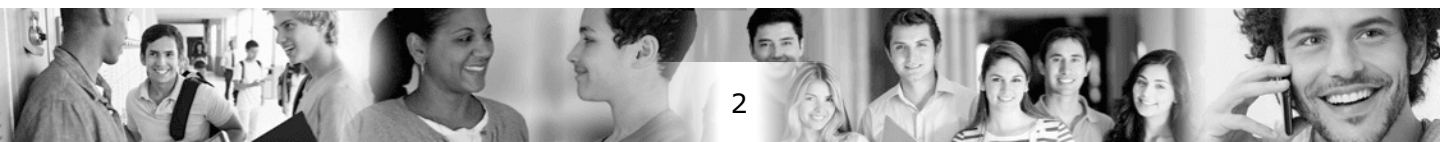

Tour Guide: The boat tour is now beginning. Please be seated. We begin our tour with the Concorde, a popular square in Paris. Next, is the Louvre, a central landmark in Paris. The building on your left is the Hôtel de Ville, or city hall. Then we have, the Conciergerie, a former royal palace. Here is the famous Notre Dame Cathedral.

Stranger: What's that building?

Tour Guide: That's the d'Orsay Museum. Coming up is Les Invalides, an old military complex. The final stop is the Eiffel Tower.

Sally: When was it built?

Tour Guide: 1887. It was designed by Stephen Sauvestre for the World's Fair.

Let's Practice!

Could you describe parts of Paris?

Instructions: Draw a line from the definition on the left to the word on the right.

- | | |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. cathedral | in the middle of an area |
| 2. central | the official home of a king or queen |
| 3. royal palace | the main church |
