Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

With your partner:

- Do you look at maps when you need to find a place in a city? Why or why not?
- What are other ways you can find out where a place is?

Can Do Statements

- I can request information from a stranger.
- I can ask and say where places are in a city.
- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.

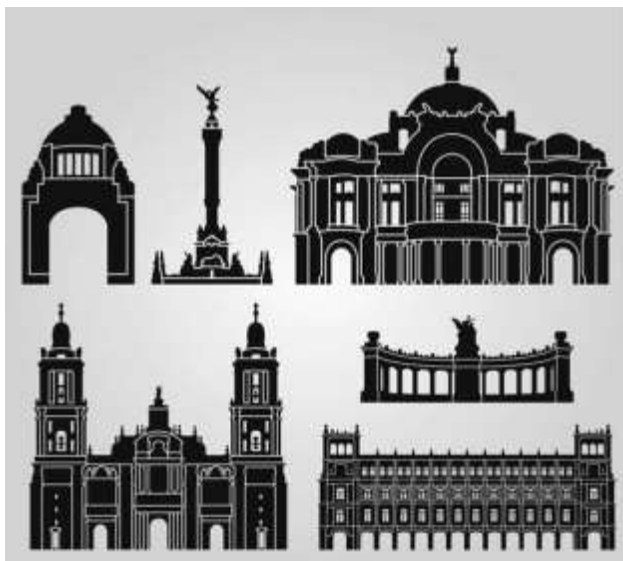

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is in Mexico City! What's she going to do?

* Remember you can use "going to" to talk about what you intend to do.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Excuse me. Can you help me? I'm a tourist here in Mexico City.
Tour Guide: Of course.
Vanessa: Well, I'm wondering what I can do on a Sunday? Any attractions to see?
Tour Guide: There's a lot to do. You can go to the Coyoacán neighborhood. They have a street market and there is an ice cream parlor opposite the market.
Vanessa: I'm looking for souvenirs too, for my aunt. I'm visiting her in San Francisco soon. Can I shop for souvenirs there?
Tour Guide: Sure.
Vanessa: How do I get to the market?
Tour Guide: You can take the Metro to General Anaya station. Use the Plaza Hidalgo exit. Head north on Hidalgo Street. The market is on your left. The Church of San Juan Bautista is on the way too.
Vanessa: Thank you very much.

Let's Practice!

Let's request some information in Mexico City!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|--------------|---------------------|
| 1) Excuse | very much. |
| 2) Can you | I do on a Sunday? |
| 3) Any | me? |

Learning Points

Travel English

When you are on vacation, it is common to ask for information from strangers in public places. You can use the expressions and modals for requests:

- Can/Could you tell/help me ... ?
- I'd like to know ...
- Would/Do you happen to know ... ?

Another way to ask for information is to use Wh- words. The Wh-question words are: what, when, where, who, and why. You can use What to ask for information like What can I do on a Sunday? You can use Where to ask for directions to places in a city and adjectives to describe the places.

When you give directions, use Imperatives, expressions and prepositions of place.

Examples:

- Chelsea: Excuse me. Can you help me?

Guide: Of course.

Chelsea: Would you happen to know where the souvenir shop is?

Guide: Head north on Main Street. It's next to the corner shop.
