

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Time for a Parisian breakfast.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go out for breakfast?
- What do you usually have?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the long a sound.
- I can talk about plans or intentions.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

What did Sally have for breakfast? Let's find out!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Bonjour!

I love Parisian breakfasts! Today, I found a little cafe by my hotel. I had an incredible view of the Eiffel Tower. Lisette, the owner was so friendly. I spoke to her about the cafe and her menu. She said she only chooses quality ingredients. The eggs arrive daily from an organic farm outside of Paris. The owner said she prepares all of the things on the menu herself. She bakes her own bread every morning and makes her own strawberry jam. My pancakes, eggs and toast were delicious. Lisette offered to show me how to bake traditional French bread. We are going to meet up later in the week. She asked me, "Where are you staying in this beautiful city?" When I told her Hotel Margot, Lisette said there is a bakery in that neighborhood. It has fantastic chocolate croissants and cake. I'm going to give it a try!

Let's Practice!

The long a sound can be made using different letters. You are going to practice this sound in words with different spellings.

Instructions: Practice reading the words and sentences aloud. Say them to a partner.

- 1) pancake
- 2) bakery
- 3) to stay
- 4) neighborhood

- 1) Lisette said there is a bakery in that neighborhood.
- 2) She bakes her own bread every morning.
- 3) Where are you staying in this beautiful city?
- 4) My pancakes, eggs and toast were delicious.

Let's Practice!

Can you spell words with the long a sound? Let's find out!

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use pancakes, bakery, staying, bakes.

- 1) Lisette said there is a _____ in that neighborhood.
- 2) She _____ her own bread every morning.
- 3) Where are you _____ in this beautiful city?
- 4) My _____ , eggs and toast were delicious.

Extension Activity

Time to practice relaxed pronunciation. Remember, some words are only used in speaking and not writing.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- With a partner, say the words in the table aloud.
- Write a sentence for each word in short form.
- Read your sentences to each other.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I say relaxed pronunciation.

☐ ☐

I write sentences using words with relaxed pronunciation.

☐ ☐

I read the sentences to a partner.

☐ ☐

Regular	Short Form
give me	gimme
going to	gonna
isn't it	init
kind of	kinda
let me	lemme
want to	wanna

Target Words

- view (noun): the things that can be seen from a particular place
e.g. I had a nice view of the Eiffel Tower.
- pancake (noun): a thin, flat, round cake
e.g. My pancakes, eggs and toast were delicious.
- incredible (adjective): extremely good; great e.g. This dessert is incredible.
- organic (adjective): grown or made without the use of artificial chemicals
e.g. The eggs are from an organic farm outside Paris.
- croissant (noun): a type of roll that has a curved shape
e.g. They have chocolate croissants across the street.

Learning Points

Relaxed Pronunciation

You use "informal contractions" or short forms of words when you are speaking casually.

For example: "gonna" is the short form of "going to". When you say the word "going to" very fast, it sounds like "gonna".

You almost never use relaxed pronunciation in writing.

Short Form	Regular form	Example
gimme	give me	Gimme your coat.
gonna	going to	What are you gonna do?
hadda	had to	I hadda try it out!
kinda	kind of	He's kinda cute.
lemme	let me	Lemme watch TV.
wanna	want to	I wanna go to Paris.
whaddya	what do you	Whaddya think?

