

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

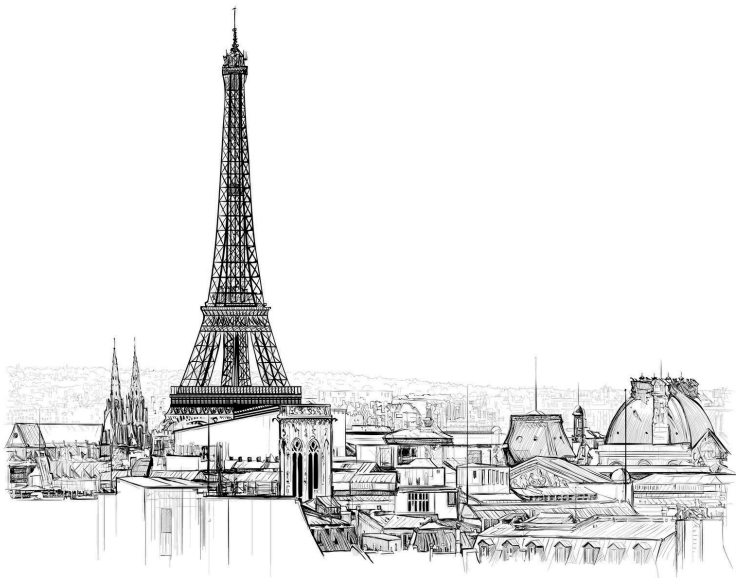

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Sally writes about Paris!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you include in a postcard?
- Do you write about the places in the city in your postcard? What do you say about them?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about shops and places in a city.
- I can talk about some actions and events.
- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.

Let's Explore!

Sally writes a postcard to Peter. What does she write about?

* When "writing" a postcard, you can use questions like, What's new? How are you doing?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Hey Peter! I wish you were here.

Paris is a dream. It's a beautiful city. People always say that and it's true.

I love walking through the streets and drinking coffee at the cafes. I love visiting the bakery.

There's always someone writing on a menu board. There are many along the sidewalk. I'm attaching a picture of me, near the Eiffel Tower. It's beautiful at night. It lights up the entire sky. I'm e-mailing you more pictures soon so you can see a little bit of Paris. Actually, you can read about it. I'm posting a new entry on my blog about my adventure later! I miss you!

Love,

Sally

P.S. How's Amanda doing?

Let's Practice!

Tell me about Paris! Can you write me a postcard?

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

- 1) I _____ you were here. Paris is a dream.
- 2) It's a beautiful city. People always _____ that and it's true.
- 3) The Eiffel Tower _____ the entire sky at night.
- 4) You can _____ a little bit of Paris.
- 5) You can _____ about it.
- 6) I _____ you!

Word bank

lights up
say
see wish
read
miss

Let's Practice!

Are you looking carefully? Can you spot the mistakes?

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

- 1) I am walk through the streets.
- 2) I am drinks coffee at the cafe.
- 3) I love visit the bakery.
- 4) There's always someone write on a menu board.
- 5) I'm e-mail you more pictures soon. I'm posting a new entry on my blog.

Extension Activity

Listen to "Wish You Were Here".

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self Assessment.

- Go on the internet.
- Listen to the song, "Wish You Were Here" by Pink Floyd.
- Find the lyrics to this song. Print them.
- Circle all the verbs in the Simple Present tense.
- Change those verbs into the Present Continuous tense.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I circle the verbs in the Simple Present tense.

☐ ☐

I use the Present Continuous tense.

☐ ☐

I review lyrics from a song from the internet.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- dream (noun): something that is beautiful, excellent or pleasing
e.g. Paris is a dream!
- wish you were here (expression): use this to say you miss someone e.g. I wish you were here in Paris with me!
- menu board (noun): a board on which you write a food menu
e.g. People write on the menu board.
- along (preposition): in a line
e.g. The menu boards are along the sidewalk.
- sidewalk (noun): a concrete path along the side of a street for people to walk on e.g. Walk on the sidewalk, not on the road.
- a little bit (expression): a small amount
e.g. You can see a little bit of Paris.
- to light up (verb): to fill up; illuminate
e.g. The Eiffel Tower lights up the sky at night.
- sky (noun): the space where the sun and moon appear
e.g. It lights up the entire sky.
- entry (noun): something that is posted on a blog
e.g. I'm posting a new entry on my blog.
- adventure (noun): an exciting experience
e.g. I am enjoying this adventure!

Learning Points

Present Simple vs. Present Continuous

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about:

- routine actions that don't change
- things that are always true

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- actions that are happening right now
- future plans

Simple Present Tense	Present Continuous Tense
Routines: I post about Paris on my blog.	Right now: I am walking through the streets of Paris.
Always true: Paris is a beautiful city.	Future plans: I'm posting a new entry on my blog about my adventure later!