Let's Start!

Time to catch up with the guys!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What are 3 important events that happened in your life? When did they happen?
- Which is the most important of all these events?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.
- I can talk about intentions and plans.
- I can talk about key life events.

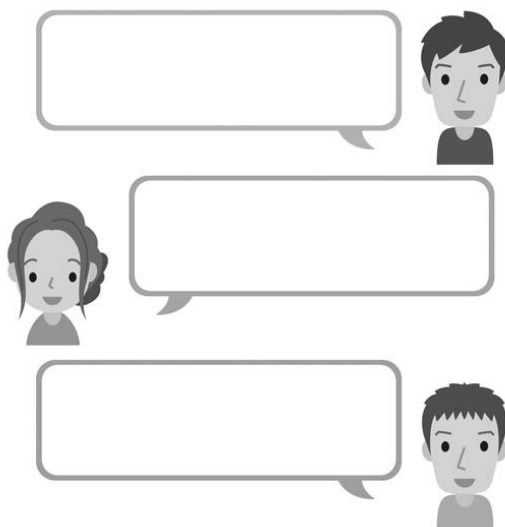

Let's Explore!

Sally, Peter and John are chatting about events in their lives. What are they up to?

* To "chat" means to talk in a friendly, informal way.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Peter, you're breaking up.

Peter: Hello?

Sally: Hi! How are you doing?

Peter: I'm okay, busy at MechaTech. I'm going to start applying to other places since I'm graduating soon ... John, you there?

John: Hey Sally! Hey Peter! Sally, it looks like you're having a blast.

Sally: I'm having tons of fun!

John: I have great news! I got a job on a ... cruise ship! I'm flying to Miami next week. I'm boarding the ship and then I'm heading to South America!

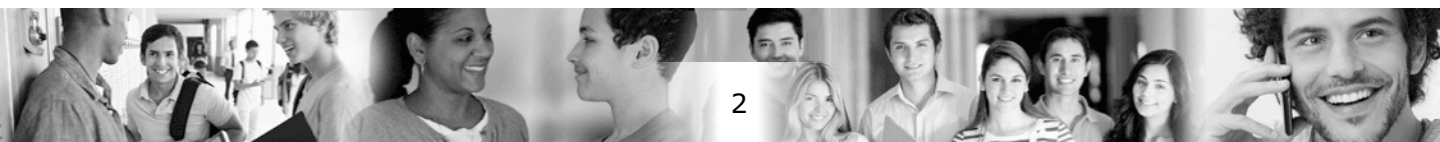

Sally: Congratulations!

Peter: What? You're going to leave Cambridge, too?

Sally: Don't worry, Peter. You won't even notice we're missing! Did you guys hear from Vanessa?

John: She's in Mexico. She's going to San Francisco next, to visit her aunt. What about you, Sally?

Sally: I'm off to Spain!

Let's Practice!

I'm doing a crossword! What about you?
